

45 year old, Kimberly Gluth of Indianapolis formerly of Rensselaer, passed away June 26, 2016.

On July 10, 1970, Kimberly was born in Lafayette, Indiana to Marvin and Karen (Hattabaugh) Hartley. Kim graduated from Rensselaer High School. She spent most of her youth and adult life working and enjoying her friends throughout the Rensselaer community. Upon moving to Indianapolis, she worked as a Waitress/Bartender at the Wolfgang Puck at the Indianapolis International Airport.

Kimberly is survived by her parents: Marvin & Karen Hartley, children: Alexia (Jeremiah) Fields and Evan, one grandchild: Kyra, siblings: Tammy Myers, Dawn (Martin) Bruce.

Kimberly was preceded in death by her brother-in-law: Jim Myers.

Friends are invited to visit with the family from 4:00 until 8:00 p.m. on July 11, 2016 at the Boersma Funeral Home, 90 East Grove St., Wheatfield, Indiana.